1938-39

The Centripetal makes its appearance for the nineteenth year and presents to the students a fitting souvenir of their days at Central. The staff realizes it is not complete, for such a book, containing a record of all the major and minor activities of the school during the year, would of necessity, be much larger than the present volume.

The annual tells the story of the regular round of class work and extra curricular activities in which students have participated during the course of the year.

Work on the year-book was restricted to the Senior class only, and staff appointments were made after a successful ad campaign was launched and the goal attained. Out of one hundred thirty-six students who took part in the campaign, eighty-three reached their quota. Rose Ann Bettinger did outstanding work in this activity by soliciting nearly sixty dollars in advertising. Others doing exceptionally good work were: Rita Kaiser, Josephine Horne, Mary Lenkay, Margaret Norton, Frank Sullivan, Leona Knight, Donald Boes, Louise

HIS HOLINESS POPE PIUS XII

Dedication

DURING the early months of the year, the entire Christian world mourned the death of the two hundred and sixty-first successor of Saint Peter, Pius XI, the Pope of Peace, and soon that same world rejoiced in the elevation to the Papal Throne of Eugenio Cardinal Pacelli who, in choosing to be known as Pius XII, gave evidence to the world of a continuation of the ideals and policies of his predecessor with whom he had been closely associated as Papal Secretary of State.

It is to these two Pontiffs, the reigning Pope Pius XII and to the memory of the deceased Pope Pius XI that we, the Senior class of Central Catholic High School dedicate this, the nineteenth volume of the Centripetal.

HIS HOLINESS, POPE PIUS XI

Prayer of the Church for a Deceased Pope

O GOD, Who in Thine unspeakable providence was pleased to number among the supreme pontiffs, Pope Pius XI, Thy Servant; grant we beseech Thee, that he who on earth was vicar of Thine only-begotten Son, may for evermore, have place among the holy bishops who in heaven reign with Thee. Amen.

Ten Years Away From the Old School at Page and Cherry

TEN YEARS old! Yes, just ten years ago, on February 6, 1929, the new Central Catholic High School building was completed and ready for occupancy. It is quite fitting, then, that we pause at the crossroads of the first decade of its existence to reminisce a bit.

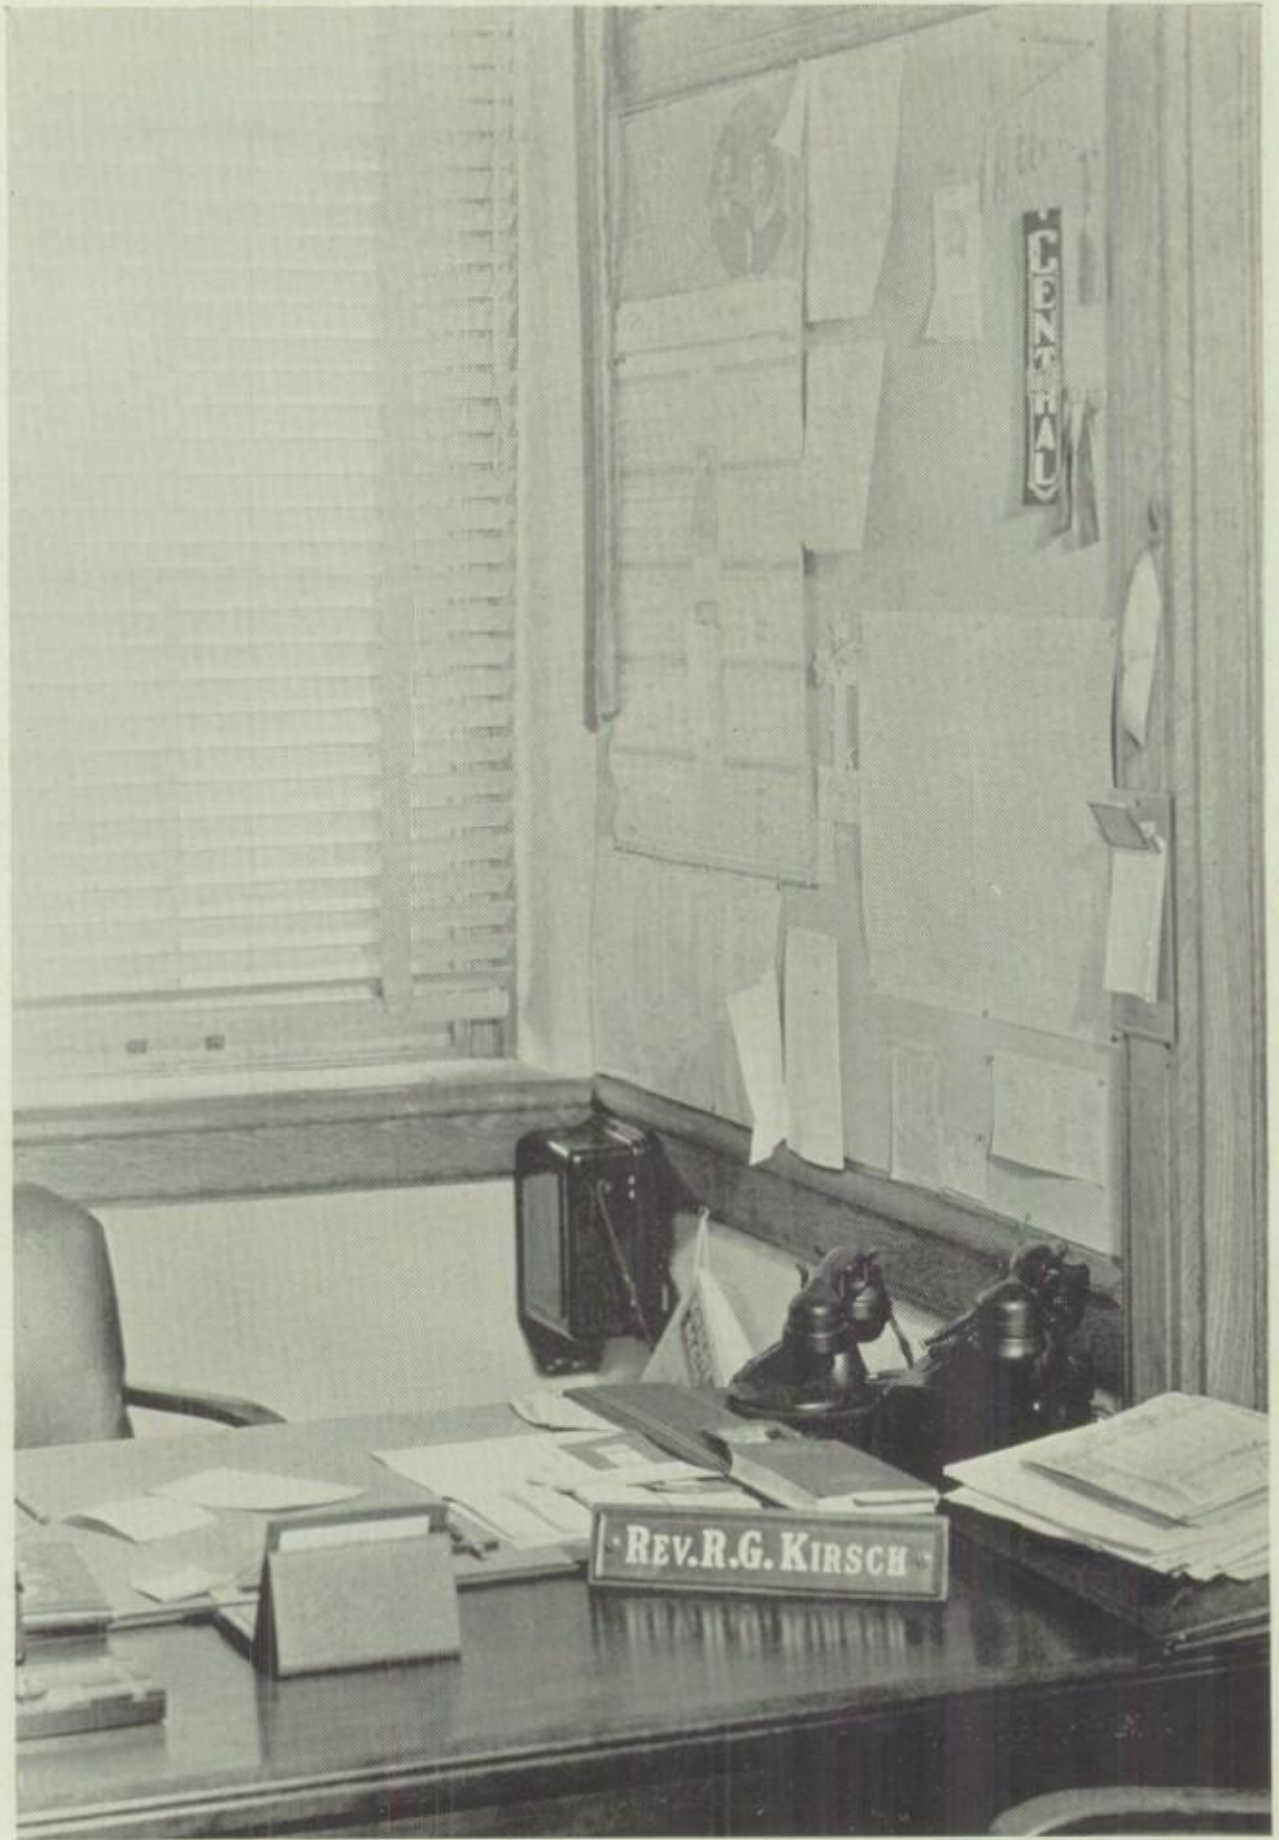

As we gaze at the present Central Catholic High School building, we realize that it was only through the prayers and sacrifices of those students who were never to enjoy it, that we are now able to celebrate the tenth anniversary of the school's completion. The weekly "Buy A Brick" campaign, held by the students of old Central High, was the true start of the new school which was to become a fitting memorial to their prayers and efforts.

In 1914, under the name of Cathedral High School, the four-year high school from which Central originated was established under the direction of the Right Reverend Monsignor J. T. O'Connell. The first graduating class, in 1915, was composed of two members. In 1920, Central Catholic High School was moved to a building at Cherry and Page Streets, to replace the old Cathedral High School, and the Very Reverend Monsignor Francis J. Macelwane was chosen principal of the institution. In 1921, the Reverend Arthur J. Sawkins took Monsignor Macelwane's position, and he, in turn, was replaced, in 1925, by the Reverend Raymond G. Kirsch, who still acts in that capacity at Central.

It was only through the generosity of the Catholics of Toledo, that a former dream was realized. With their pledge of $1,115,542, the Right Reverend Samuel A. Stritch, D. D., the then Bishop of Toledo, and the present Archbishop of Milwaukee, broke the ground for the new school, on March 5, 1928. After eleven months of hard work, hundreds of eager students flocked through the doors of the new diocesan high school for Catholic Boys and Girls.

Ten years in the new school . . . ten graduations . . . 2010 Seniors have reluctantly left the classrooms of Central to take their place in the whirl of life. Now it is our turn—the turn of the two hundred and eighty-six Seniors of the class of '39—to bid our Farewells and Adieus to the school and to those we love. May God be with us who go, and with those who follow.

THE MOST REVEREND KARL J. ALTER, D. D.,
Bishop of Toledo

THE MOST Reverend Bishop Karl J. Alter, D. D., LL. D., was born in Toledo on August 18, 1885. He studied for the priesthood at St. Mary's Seminary and was ordained June 4, 1910, in St. John's Cathedral, Cleveland, Ohio. His first appointment after entering priesthood was as administrator of St. Mary's Parish in Leipsic.

In 1914 he returned to Toledo to organize the Diocesan Charities and a little later took charge of St. Anthony's Orphanage. He was a member of the faculty of Mary Manse College and of the former Toledo Teachers' College. At the time of his appointment as Bishop of the Diocese of Toledo he was in Washington as Director of the National Catholic School of Social Service.

He was consecrated Bishop on June 17, 1931, in St. Francis de Sales Cathedral, and since that time he has done much to further the growth of the Church in the diocese.

Two of his many outstanding accomplishments as Bishop of Toledo are the founding of DeSales College in 1936 and of the Catholic Chronicle, the official Catholic newspaper of the diocese.

Religious Orders Represented at Central

In order that the students might become better acquainted with the origins of the religious orders, a brief history of each order teaching at Central is presented below:

The Sisters of Notre Dame

Towards the end of the French Revolution, Blessed Mother Julia Billiard founded the order of the Sisters of Notre Dame. After establishing a number of educational institutions in France, Holland, and Germany, two hundred sisters, the first group of state examined teachers, entered the United States in 1872.

Among the first foundations in the city of Toledo was the opening of Saint Mary's School. In 1925 the Community of the Sisters of Notre Dame in Toledo became a Diocesan Provinciate.

The commercial, art, and Latin departments of Central have been under their supervision since the beginning of the school.

The Sisters of St. Francis (Sylvania)

On the feast of the Immaculate Conception, 1916, the Sisters of St. Francis of the Congregation of Our Lady of Lourdes, whose Mother-house is in Rochester, Minnesota, established a new Foundation in the diocese of Toledo, Ohio. The action was taken at the urgent request of the Most Reverend Joseph Schrembs, then Bishop of Toledo. Mother Mary Adelaide was appointed General Superior of the new Foundation.

Education of youth and the care of the sick constitute the work of the Sisters. In addition to their work in parochial grade and high schools the Sisters are represented in the faculty of DeSales College and Central Catholic High School.

The Ursuline Nuns

Synonymous with the name Ursuline is the word first. For this order, the first teaching order for women in the Catholic Church, and founded in 1535 by St. Angela Merici, in Brescia, Italy, was the first one in the Western Hemisphere. The five Ursuline nuns who came to Toledo in 1854 from Cleveland were the pioneer teachers of the diocese. Mother des Seraphim was first superior.

In addition to numerous parochial grade schools, St. Angela Merici Hall, St. Ursula's Academy, Mary Manse College, the only college for women in the diocese, and Nazareth Hall, a military school for boys, are under their jurisdiction. The departments of English and Home Economics are under the direction of the Ursuline Nuns who have been associated with Central since its foundation in 1914.

The Sisters of Mercy

The Sisters of Mercy, founded one hundred and twelve years ago in Ireland by Mother Mary Catherine McAuley, came to the United States in 1843. In 1911 at the request of Bishop Schrembs, the Sisters came to Toledo from Grand Rapids with Mother Bernadine as their superior. Ten years later the nuns took up their duties at Central and have been teaching here for the past eighteen years.

The primary purpose of the order is to perform spiritual and corporal works of mercy especially in the promotion of schools and hospitals.

The Sisters of St. Francis (Joliet)

The Congregation of the Third Order of St. Francis was established in Joliet, Illinois, in 1865. After establishing a number of schools in that state including the College of St. Francis, St. Francis Academy and St. Francis Preparatory School, the work of the Sisterhood spread through five states including Ohio.

In 1930 the Sisters of St. Francis were invited to take up work as instructors at Central and have been teaching here for the past nine years.

The Sisters of St. Francis (Tiffin)

The Order of the Sisters of Christian Charity and Penance of the Third Order of St. Francis, called the Franciscan Sisters of Tiffin was founded in 1869 for the purpose of caring for the aged and for orphan children. Mother Francis was the superior at the time of its establishment.

In 1936 the Sisters came to Central and at present two of them are teaching in the English department.

Attendance Department

- (1) Rev. John L. Harrington, head of the Attendance Department, talks it over with a late student.
- (2) Sister Bernildis, S. N. D., girls' attendance supervisor, asks for the required written excuse for absence.
- (3) Sister Mary Magdalene, boys' attendance supervisor, issues class admission slip.

THE ATTENDANCE department of Central Catholic High School is under the supervision of the Reverend J. L. Harrington, assisted by Sister Mary Bernildis, S. N. D., and Sister Mary Magdalene, O. S. U.

Organized to keep a more accurate check on student attendance, this department, through the help of the supervisors, has been of great assistance to the students in enabling them to solve their attendance problems.

Sister Bernildis handles the attendance records of five hundred eighty-seven girls in room 208; in the Board Room, Sister Magdalene solves the attendance problems of eight hundred sixty-seven boys attending Central.

Whenever a student has been absent from school, a written excuse properly dated, explaining the reason for absence, and signed by parent or guardian, must be presented to the proper Attendance Supervisor. The school reserves the right to determine what constitutes a valid excuse for absence. Generally, absence is excusable only if it is morally or physically impossible for the student to be present. In case of absence or tardiness, an admission slip, obtained from the supervisor must be presented to the respective teachers and returned to the proper attendance room at two thirty-five.

For tardiness and unexcused absence students are required to remain after school in the proper attendance room, one or more days according to the nature of the defect of the attendance. No other obligation of any kind in or out of school may take precedence over this obligation.

Memories of the Year

SEPTEMBER

3. Into the book store trotted every lad and maiden
Only to emerge sans cash . . . and book laden.
6. We packed away vacation toys
And marched back to dear school's joys.
12. The journalists had their first big meet
To plan for a CENTRIC that can't be beat.
21. The S. S. C. had its first big meeting,
And Robert Flahie gave the greeting.
22. The first of the year . . . today's fire drill,
Practice makes perfect . . . My what skill!
(One minute, forty-five seconds).
23. Hi ho, hi ho, to Tiffin we must go,
Back we came . . . and what a game!
(Tiffin Junior Order 0—Central 25).
30. The Cowboys and Irish drew a tie,
But you can't say our team didn't try.

OCTOBER

1. To you Carl Spencer we proudly present
The Student Council president.
5. Another assembly . . . or rally,
To pep up our spirit, by jove, by golly!
6. Voices hushed and steps not loud,
Retreat was good for this noisy crowd.
7. William Yates intends to edit
An AL-GEO-TRIG worth credit.
11. Centric appointments were made today,
Norma Fehlen and Frank Sullivan, co-editors;
(Okay we'd say!)
12. We're glad for Columbus, rest where he may,
To him we owe the twelfth . . . a free day.
13. They put a gadget to our ear
Just to hear how well we hear.
(Hearing tests).
15. Le Cercle Francais, that club elite
Is beginning again to get on its feet.
19. Silver and gold were flashed all day
As monograms were given for A's.
21. Waite and Central joined for a spree
And guess who walked off with a victory?

DECEMBER

2. Those basketeers are game on speed
Always win is Central's creed.
3. The Student Chairman, Robert Vickers,
Will do it well as we all "figgers"
(Student General Chairman of Dramatic Productions)
4. Mrs. Adams seniors scanned
Dramatic "actors" soon to command.
8. Mary, Queen of land and sea,
Aid us all to be as thee!
(Immaculate Conception)
9. The library drive was a big success
So to find "that" book no more distress.
9. Our quintet to Fremont did gallop
And did they pack a winning wallop!
21. Off to jolly old play we go
It's Christmas Vacation, yo ho! yo ho.
24. The charitable boys of St. Vincent de Paul
With baskets and toys made many a call.

NOVEMBER

1. The Saints are good in every way
To them we owe another free day.
3. He gave us teams both great and small
But now he has answered DeSales' call.
(Mr. Sacksteder).
4. On the Honor Roll the Seniors are Leading others, but not by far.
4. Students arrived on Color Day
Draped in hues of Scarlet and Gray.
5. The Maroon and White didn't look so well
As on their knees to Central they fell.
Central 21—Scott 6).
13. "How do you do, oh, I'm sure he's good."
Spoke parent to teacher, as Johnny stood.
- 21, 22, 23. Once again our brains did cram
For another six weeks exam.
23. All had fun at the Student Council Dance,
Harold Mouch walked out the winner of chance.
(He won the turkey!)

JANUARY

9. Show your teeth, now flash a smile,
Remember your picture's kept on file.
10. The whistle blew to end the game
The score of each was 'most the same.
(Vocational 25—Central 24)
13. The Indians' hobby is to scalp
But on this Friday they hollered "halp!"
(Central 27—Waite 25)
- 16-19. Again the story of midnight oil
While students over books do toil.
(Mid-year Exams)
23. Greet it with the broadest smile
This new semester make worth while.
24. On the stage they shyly came
The big and little in "Growing Pains."
27. An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth,
Don't get too violent—my, my, forsooth!
(Central 38—Libbey 27)
31. We "poosh" 'em up, we "mow" 'em down
As Central's cagers go to town!
(Central 27—Woodward 24)

FEBRUARY

3. The Irish eagers are in the open
They're on their toes instead of mopin'.
(Central 32—Waite 26)
5. The Centric has entered N. S. P. A.
What the outcome will be is hard to say.
7. Another victory is chalked up
Central's five are after the cup.
(Central 38—Vocational 27)
8. Father Mattimoe, a most welcome guest,
Spoke on the Chronicle, so we'll do our best.
11. We won, we won, we won,
We won, by golly, we won.
(Central 47—DeVilbiss 27)
14. All the students of Central cheer
The most glorious victory of the year.
(Central 54—Scott 37)
15. We just received news of misfortune today
That Our Holy Father had passed away.
23. In the auditorium the glee club did sing
To see if their voices had the right ring.
(Operetta try-outs)

APRIL

2. Pictures of Pius' election in Rome
Were seen by us all, right here at home.
3. Only part with five cents and a dime
Then a "have a heart" button on your chest will shine.
5. Clean-up week has started today
Watch where you throw your papers away.
5. Lent has gone, and Easter's come
Vacation's here, let's have some fun.
- 21, 22, 23. With plenty of talent and plenty of skill
The orchestra and glee club presented "The Red Mill."
28. Hi ho, Hi ho, It's off to the dance we thought we'd go
Sponsored by the Student Council, swing high, swing low.
(Postponed again! Rain checks for all!)

MARCH

- 1, 2. Oh, woe is me, six-weeks' exams
I didn't study so I have to cram.
2. The Cardinals today, in far off Rome,
Elected Cardinal Pacelli to the papal throne.
7. A certain credit you've happened to miss
Will certainly show on the O. K. LIST.
15. Seniors attend Mass for the new Holy Father
Mass was said by Our Dear Bishop Alter.
16. The Centripetal Staff is picked at last
(Twill surely be better than in the past).
17. The Bishop gave us a free day today.
It happened to fall on St. Patrick's Day.
22. The French picture "Golgatha" is shown on the screen.
Father Kirsch says there are more to be seen.
27. Most of the boys paraded a "Polite" streak
Don't you know, it's "Courtesy Week"?
6. Our pennies we saved all during Lent
For the Mission Drive is an important event.

MAY

7. To the tea at Mary Manse College
Went the girls who plan to continue their quest for knowledge.
- 15, 16, 17. The senior retreat began today.
To God, the seniors, homage pay.
17. A very important event of May was the religion test taken today. (Religion Examination)
24. With face aglow and smile serene
Norma Fehlen crowned the May Queen.
29. Central's Festival, held at Swayne Field
A large and mighty sum did yield.

JUNE

7. Are the seniors happy? I guess they are
For test days are over, and lockers ajar.
9. Departing Seniors, fond thoughts retain
Say not good bye . . . Auf Wiedersehen.

In Memoriam

IN MEMORY of the deceased students and faculty members, this page is sincerely dedicated. It is printed annually so that the present student body may offer an occasional prayer for those who were members of Central's family, either as teachers or as students.

WILLIAM BICK

William Bick, a member of the class of '39, died on May 16, 1938. By his death the Senior Class was deprived of a youth whose promptness and conscientiousness endeared him to the members of the faculty and student body. As a member of the Band, he performed his duties with loyalty and enthusiasm. We, his classmates, remember him as a lad who finished his course before us and who, we pray, is enjoying his eternal reward.

NOW THE Senior year has almost passed, and memories remain for the two hundred eighty six students of the Class of '39. The thrill of being first in everything . . . the news of Centric appointments . . . the class election . . . receiving the long awaited Senior rings . . . the Senior Play . . . the Operetta . . . the Centripetal . . . the Senior Retreat . . . the election of valedictorian and salutatorian . . . the Senior breakfast and . . . finally Graduation.

In leaving we are consoled with the thought that as we do so, we join the ranks of the Alumni and thereby anchor our heartstrings forever in Central.

The Juniors

WITH THE passing of another year, the three hundred and thirty-three members of the Junior Class have successfully landed on the shore of Seniorland. During the course of the last year, they have responded whole-heartedly in almost all their activities.

Various musical talents of the Juniors were well represented in the Glee Club, Band, and Orchestra. Fine performances were given by Junior athletes on the gridiron, later on the basketball floor, and also on the baseball diamond.

Their achievements in the literary field included the gathering of material for research essays and the writing of short stories. A further proof of ability was given when they captured five out of the six prizes awarded to Central in the Current Science Contest.

The publication of the Junior Centric added the finishing touches to their successful year.

If the past year is a foreshadow of the coming year, we, the members of the Senior Class, are confident that the Juniors will capably carry on the traditions of Central.

The Sophomores

REVIEWING the activities of the Sophomores we can look appraisingly upon their accomplishments. This group of students has fallen in line in assimilating the true spirit and in carrying on the traditions of Central Catholic High School. Their resourcefulness was affirmed by their whole-hearted seizure of the opportunities which developed their leadership in the Chronicle Campaign, the Mission Drive, and the Community Chest Campaign.

Well done Sophomores, keep up the good work which you have begun.

AS ONE STUDENT CATHOLIC ACTIONIST TO ANOTHER

Dear Jane:

Are you a ray of sunshine or a drop of rain?

Do you know what I mean? Do you realize that Catholic Action begins at home, and how many things you can do there to make life a little more pleasant? Do you do them?

It wouldn't take you two seconds to rattle off little helpful acts that you could perform, but it seems so hard really to apply them in your daily life. You come home from school grumbling, perhaps about the home-work piled on you, or the fact that you always seem to be picked on by a teacher. Of course the scolding you got for chewing gum (a brand new stick at that) plus the two demerits didn't tend to make you feel any better. Slam! go the books on the table, knocking over a vase on the journey. Bang! goes the wardrobe door with a part of your coat caught in it. Little Tommy gets a very rude knock because he so innocently stood in your way. Well! Is that the way to act? I think not.

Do you stop to consider that others may not have had such a pleasant day, also? At least they try to make it cheery for others, Maybe Mother woke up with a splitting headache in the morning, but that did not stop her from getting up early to get your breakfast and pack your lunch. There was the house to clean, too, and a basket of clothes to be ironed. Baby was unusually cranky and she had to spend so much time with him. Now, don't you think that after such a day of both manual and mental work, she is more tired than you? Yet she does not complain or grumble. You should be a source of relief rather than an addition of grief when you come home. Your presence should make troubles light, and laughter merry. Make Mother forget the hard day she put in; make Dad forget his office worries and make Little Tommy a happy little lad, glad that he has such a fine big sister.

As a member of the Catholic Action Club and since Catholic Action begins at home, start today with your personal revision of home life, for

*Hearts may be heavy, troubles be great,
But sunshine and joy will always rate.
There's always a lining to clouds that are dark
Put on the brave front and sing like a lark.
Happiness comes from within a great soul.
Don't keep yours locked up—too soon 'twill grow old.*

Bye, bye, for now,

HELEN O'RIORDON, '39

The Freshmen

THE PLACE was Central, the time, September 5, 1939, and the participants in this drama were 447 Freshmen. These ambitious additions to the student body impressed the entire school with the enthusiasm and zeal which marked the beginning of their high school career.

Despite the fact that they were the youngest class at Central, the Freshmen displayed as much wisdom as the upperclassmen in selecting their class officers, James Murtagh, president; Alice Gilmore, vice president; Francis Malone, secretary; Alene Ball, treasurer. In a large measure the credit for the excellent progress of the Freshman class is due to the efforts and leadership of these officers.

Because they quickly learned to transform their abundant energy into work, instead of wasting it, the Freshmen were unusually successful in the Library Drive, Mission Drive, Catholic Chronicle Campaign, and many other activities.

The marked improvement shown by the Freshmen of '39 makes us certain that during the next three years they will more than carry on the fine traditions of Central Catholic High.

Holy Joseph, Lead Me On!

*Holy Joseph, dearest father,
Take my hand—and lead me
As onward through life I trod
Be my companion all the way—
Till the end, when I meet my God.
Grasp my weakened fingers tighter
When the way is hard to see;
Be my hope, my consolation,
And help me to live near thee.*

*Dearest foster-father of Jesus,
Spouse of His Mother fair,
As a model father of families,
I entrust my life to your care.
Enthroned in your arms, when death's shadow appears,
Give me to Jesus for the eternal years.*

—RITA DUMAS

Queen of Peace—

*Dear Mary, Queen of the Rosary,
Here, I kneel with my beaded chain—
Most beautiful, most profitable
Of all I own.
And as I meditate, Dear Mother,
Upon every bead,
May each Hail Mary help strengthen me
Against the evils of the world.*

*Dear Queen, look down upon conflicting nations,
Where hate is victor o'er love,
Vouchsafe to restore peace amongst them.
Comforting beads—
Power lies within your decades.
In those turbulent lands
Help right reign over might,
We beg of Thee, Queen of Peace.*

—RITA DUMAS

A GRADUATE PRAYS

Ours is a school built on love
Of Christ the King.
And we, who trod on such
Firm foundations know
Peace and joy. We sing
His praises in our hearts
And hourly commend our souls
To Him.

Soon—when we are gone
Others will take our places.
O God! Make them feel
The things we feel. Let them see
And know the Christ-like atmosphere
Of Central.
Let them carry on!

—Alice E. Eisel, '39

CLASS OF '39

The corridors no longer echo
With voices of our class
The heavy doors no longer swing
To let each member pass.
But still behind these portals
And still within these walls
The silent footsteps of our souls
Pace along the halls.

They move along from room to room
As steady as a clock
And pause a moment before each door
And silently they knock.
They enter in the classrooms
And sit with ever a sigh
And talk about the times now passed
For the class of thirty-nine.

—Robert McMahon, '39

HE IS OUR WAY

What does the future
hold?
The years to come
Will they be sweet and tranquil?
Think not of tomorrow
Today the Lord is with us.
He is our way.

Will all the dreams
So sweet in Springtime
Turn into dust?
Will you know in November
The happiness
That filled your heart in
May?

—Gloria Putz, '39.

Four Years

FOUR year ago this class entered Central . . .
anticipating various things . . . bewildered
. . . struggling with problems . . . uneasy . . .
in need of counsel and instruction.

Now time grows short . . . and we are sad and troubled . . . yet calm . . . sorry to leave . . . but certain now of our principles . . . departing to progress to a determined goal . . . bidding farewell to Central . . . the character-builder . . . Central
. . . the safeguard of our adolescent years . . . Central . . . our alma mater . . . good bye . . . we take memories with us . . . and more than these . . . we take Central's Protector . . . Christ Our King.

MY BIRTHRIGHT

God, my Father
Has given me

Life—

A reality ever growing and unfolding.

Love—

To make Life valuable or worthless.

Liberty—

To be His or not.

Grace—

To retain my birthright.

—Mary Ann Shea, '39

WE'RE GRADUATES

Never again to hear the bell
Never to hear the football yell
Never to slam the lockers shut
Never to open text books up—
We're graduates.

Now there is other work to do
Now there are duties for me and you
Now we are on our own to stay
Now we are all too old to play—
We're graduates.

—Virginia Glaizer, '39

SHE'S MY MOTHER

Have you ever thought of this someone
As the sweetest person you know?
And thought to yourself as she kissed your cheek—
(And it wasn't necessary to speak—)
"She's my mother?"

Have you ever watched from day to day
How she always wears a smile?
And thought to yourself—"There isn't another
As patient, as kind
As my mother?"

—Edna Schneider, '39

DEAR FRIENDS OF CENTRAL CATHOLIC HIGH

Not only today, but always shall we give our humble thanks,
Our thanks to you—for your unselfish sacrifices
Dear Friends of Central Catholic High.

Through your foresight and generous help our goal we have attained,
And now in solemn prayer we praise your names,
Dear Friends of Central Catholic High.

By name we do not know you; that matters little now
For long ago an angel wise enscrolled your names on high—
Now all we say is just—
"Dear Lord, You know those Friends of Central Catholic High."

THE MEMORARE

REMEMBER, O most gracious Virgin Mary! that never was it known that anyone who fled to thy protection, implored thy help, or sought thy intercession, was left unaided. Inspired with this confidence, I fly unto thee, O Virgin of virgins, my mother! To thee I come; before thee I stand, sinful and sorrowful. O Mother of the Word incarnate! despise not my petitions, but, in thy mercy, hear and answer me. Amen.

Treasurer -----Patrick Hagerty

The Student Spiritual Council has been organized to foster Catholic Action in the student body. The organization has a two-fold purpose, namely, to unite all religious committees of the school, so that in this unity they may best spread the kingdom of Christ, and to make each student realize his duty to develop Christ within himself.

The Student Spiritual Council consists of the following committees:

Catholic Literature Committee

The Catholic Literature Committee, a new unit this year, was organized to promote student interest in the reading of Catholic literature and to familiarize them with Catholic writers. The two principle activities of the Catholic Literature Committee were the care of the pamphlet rack in the school lobby and the sponsoring of the Catholic Literature contest during Catholic Press month. This committee is headed by Sister Mary Dominic, O. S. U.

Social Action Committee

The Social Action Committee has been organized to promote the reign of Christ through personal and social relationship. A program consisting of praying together, working, studying, and recreating together is carried out according to the technique of Paul McQuire. The faculty group advisers of the Catholic Action Units are the Rev. John L. Harrington, Sister Mary Magdalene, O. S. U., and Sister Mary Gertrude, R. S. M.

LEFT TO RIGHT—Bottom Row: Joan Calkins and Marilyn Drouillard, Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Saint Hilda Guild; Mildred Cira, Donald Hunter, Secretary and Chairman of the Catholic Social Action Committee; Alice Bick, Rose Ann Bettinger, Chairman and Vice-Chairman of the Apostolic Committee; Anna Mae Bader, Eileen Callaghan, Chairman and Vice-chairman of the Eucharistic - Our Lady's Committee.

BOTTOM ROW—Patrick Hagerty, Treasurer; Anna Mae Bader, Secretary.

The Apostolic Committee

The object of the Apostolic Committee is to develop in the students loyalty and devotion to the Church. This committee sponsored the Christmas Seal campaign, a triduum during the Church Unity Octave, the Mission Drive during Lent, which netted $526.67, and the Mission Day of the sick. On this day, the sick offered up all their prayers and sufferings for the intention of the Holy Father, the missions and the conversion of the infidels. Sister M. Alma, S. N. D., heads the committee.

Saint Hilda Guild

The Saint Hilda Guild is a unit which functions through the girls' art department under the direction of Sister Mary Hilda, S. N. D. This committee takes care of the sacristy work which includes daily preparation for Holy Mass, laying out the vestments and arranging the altar.

Auxiliary Committees of S. S. C.

FIRST ROW—Senior St. John Berchmans Society; Freshmen, Sophomore, St. Hilda Guild members; Our Lady of Victory Catholic Action Call.

THIRD ROW—Junior, Senior Eucharistic - Our Lady's Committee; St. Vincent de Paul Society; Freshmen, Sophomore Eucharistic - Our Lady's Committee.

Eucharistic - Our Lady's Committee

The aim of the Eucharistic - Our Lady's Committee is to increase attendance at daily Mass and to cultivate loyalty and devotion to Christ, to His Blessed Mother and to the Saints. The observance of the Guard of Honor, attendance at Benediction of the Blessed Sacrament, and the novena to eliminate the school debt, also come under their activities. This committee is directed by Sister Mary Hortense, O. S. F.

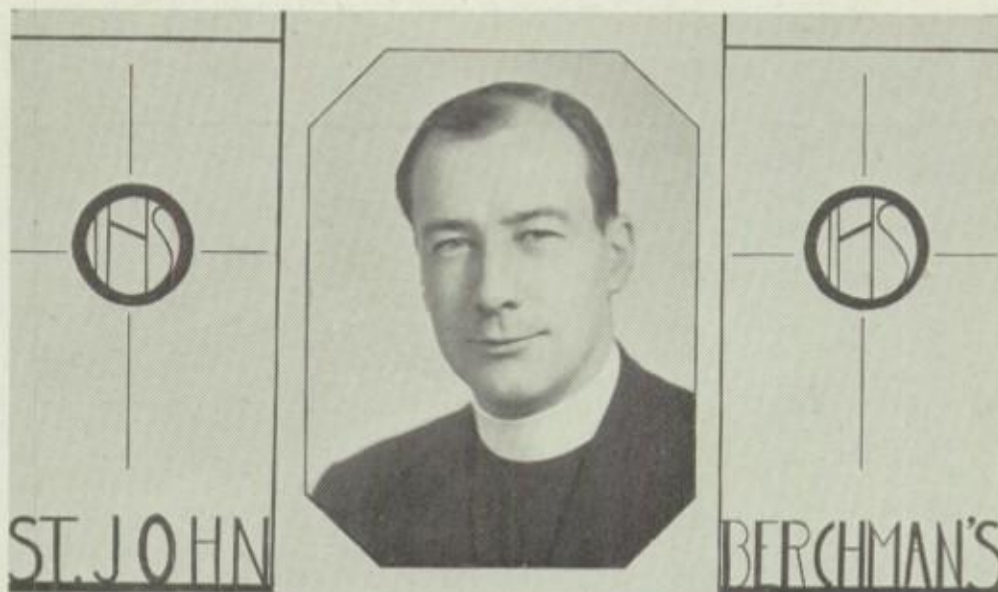

Saint Vincent de Paul Society

Central's auxiliary unit of the St. Vincent de Paul Society has done much throughout the year to promote student thought for the welfare of the less fortunate. From the students, the unit has gathered old clothing and magazines which they distributed to the needy. At Christmas they supervised the collection of over ninety baskets of food.

Saint John Berchmans Society

One of the greatest privileges afforded to young men is that of serving the priest at Mass. In order to do so with a greater degree of perfection and correctness, the servers of Central have been organized into the Saint John Berchmans Sanctuary Society. Under the direction of Sister Mary Louis, S. N. D., the society has worked efficiently throughout the year.

Robert Flahie was Master of Ceremonies during the current year and was assisted by Bernard Johnson, Francis Jacobs, Donald Kranz, Raymond Hunter, John Roesner, James Tafelski, Ralph Trese, Raymond Viola and Robert Hunter.

History Department

CLUBS

THESE ARE three general fields in the History Department at Central. Courses are offered in Ancient, Modern, and American History.

Sister M. Gertrude, R. S. M., and Sister M. Germaine, R. S. M., teach American History, and they have two hundred and eighty students in the nine classes daily. Eight Ancient History classes, including two hundred and sixty-seven students, are under the supervision of Sister M. Paul, R. S. M., and Sister Rose Agnes, O. S. F. There are ten classes, with three hundred and thirty-six students in all, in the Modern History classes. Sister M. Austin, R. S. M., and Sister M. Neri, R. S. M., are the respective Modern History teachers.

The history students participated in an essay contest on "Crime Prevention" sponsored by the Junior Chamber of Commerce. To further the interest in these classes, current topic meetings are held every Friday.

An assembly, celebrating the 150th anniversary of the inauguration of George Washington as President, was presented by various representatives of the History classes on May 3.

TOP ROW—The Modern History Club discusses Christianity versus "isms."

SECOND ROW—Representatives of the American History Discussion Clubs reviewing the qualities of leadership possessed by the builders and preservers of our Constitution.

THIRD ROW—Members of History Club, Room 217, reads the Constitution of the Club members.

The English Department

SINCE English is a required subject in the school curriculum, every student in the school is assigned to some English class, forty-four of which are held each day.

The English department is under the supervision of the Ursuline Nuns. In the department are eight Ursuline Nuns, two Franciscan Sisters from Tiffin and Mr. Marvin Sauppe.

The English course covers a period of four years and provides for the student the necessary drill in the fundamental language skills, a detailed study of the classics with special emphasis on American Literature for the Juniors and English Literature for the Seniors. Courses in Journalism and Public Speaking are open to the Seniors.

BOTTOM ROW—(1) Juniors do detail work on research essays. (2) Public Speaking class reviews parliamentary procedure.

Language Department

FRENCH: All students who study French are eligible for membership in the French club, "LE CERCLE FRANCAIS," which has for its purpose a better appreciation of the value of French.

SPANISH: EL CIRCULO ESPANOL is composed of members of the second year Spanish classes and exists for the purpose of enabling the students to gain a deeper insight into Spanish culture for which regular class time is not sufficient.

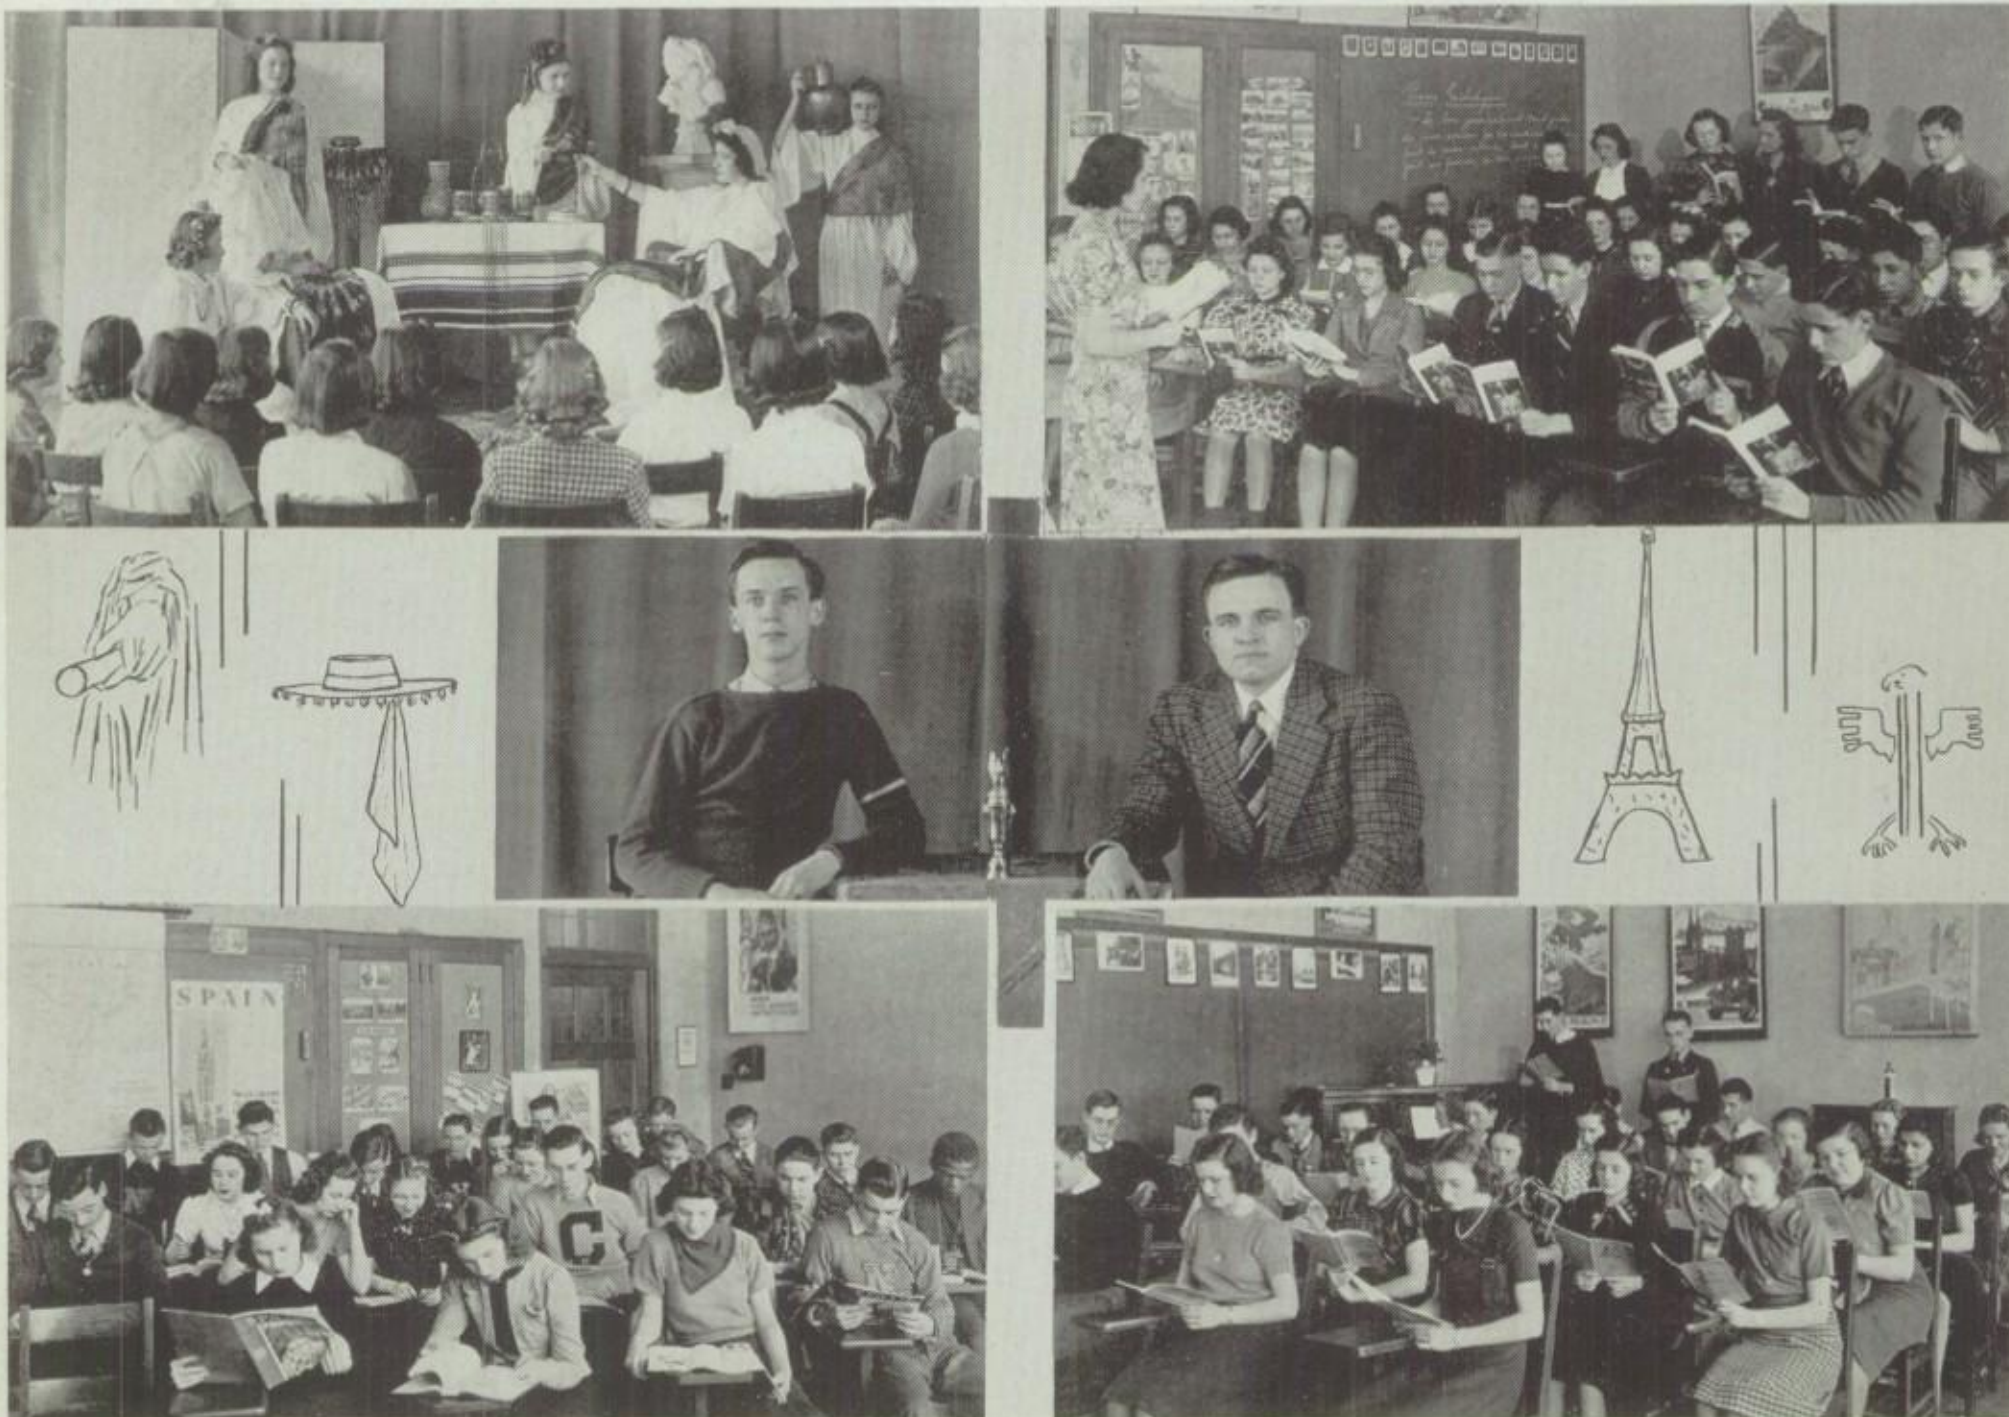

GERMAN: Movies, skits, and puppet shows are a few of the undertakings of Central's German club, "DEUTSCHER VEREIN."

"William Tell," a movie narrating parts of the life of that well known hero, was obtained through the efforts of the German club.

The Franciscan Sisters of Joliet are in charge of the French, Spanish, and German departments.

LATIN: In addition to meeting standard requirements the students do work in "Via Media," liturgical Latin, and the seniors translate Pope Leo XIII's encyclical on Free Masonry.

The Notre Dame Sisters are in charge of the department with Sister M. Consilia, O. S. F., Mr. Marvin Sauppe and the Reverend Arthur T. Schmit also teaching in the department.

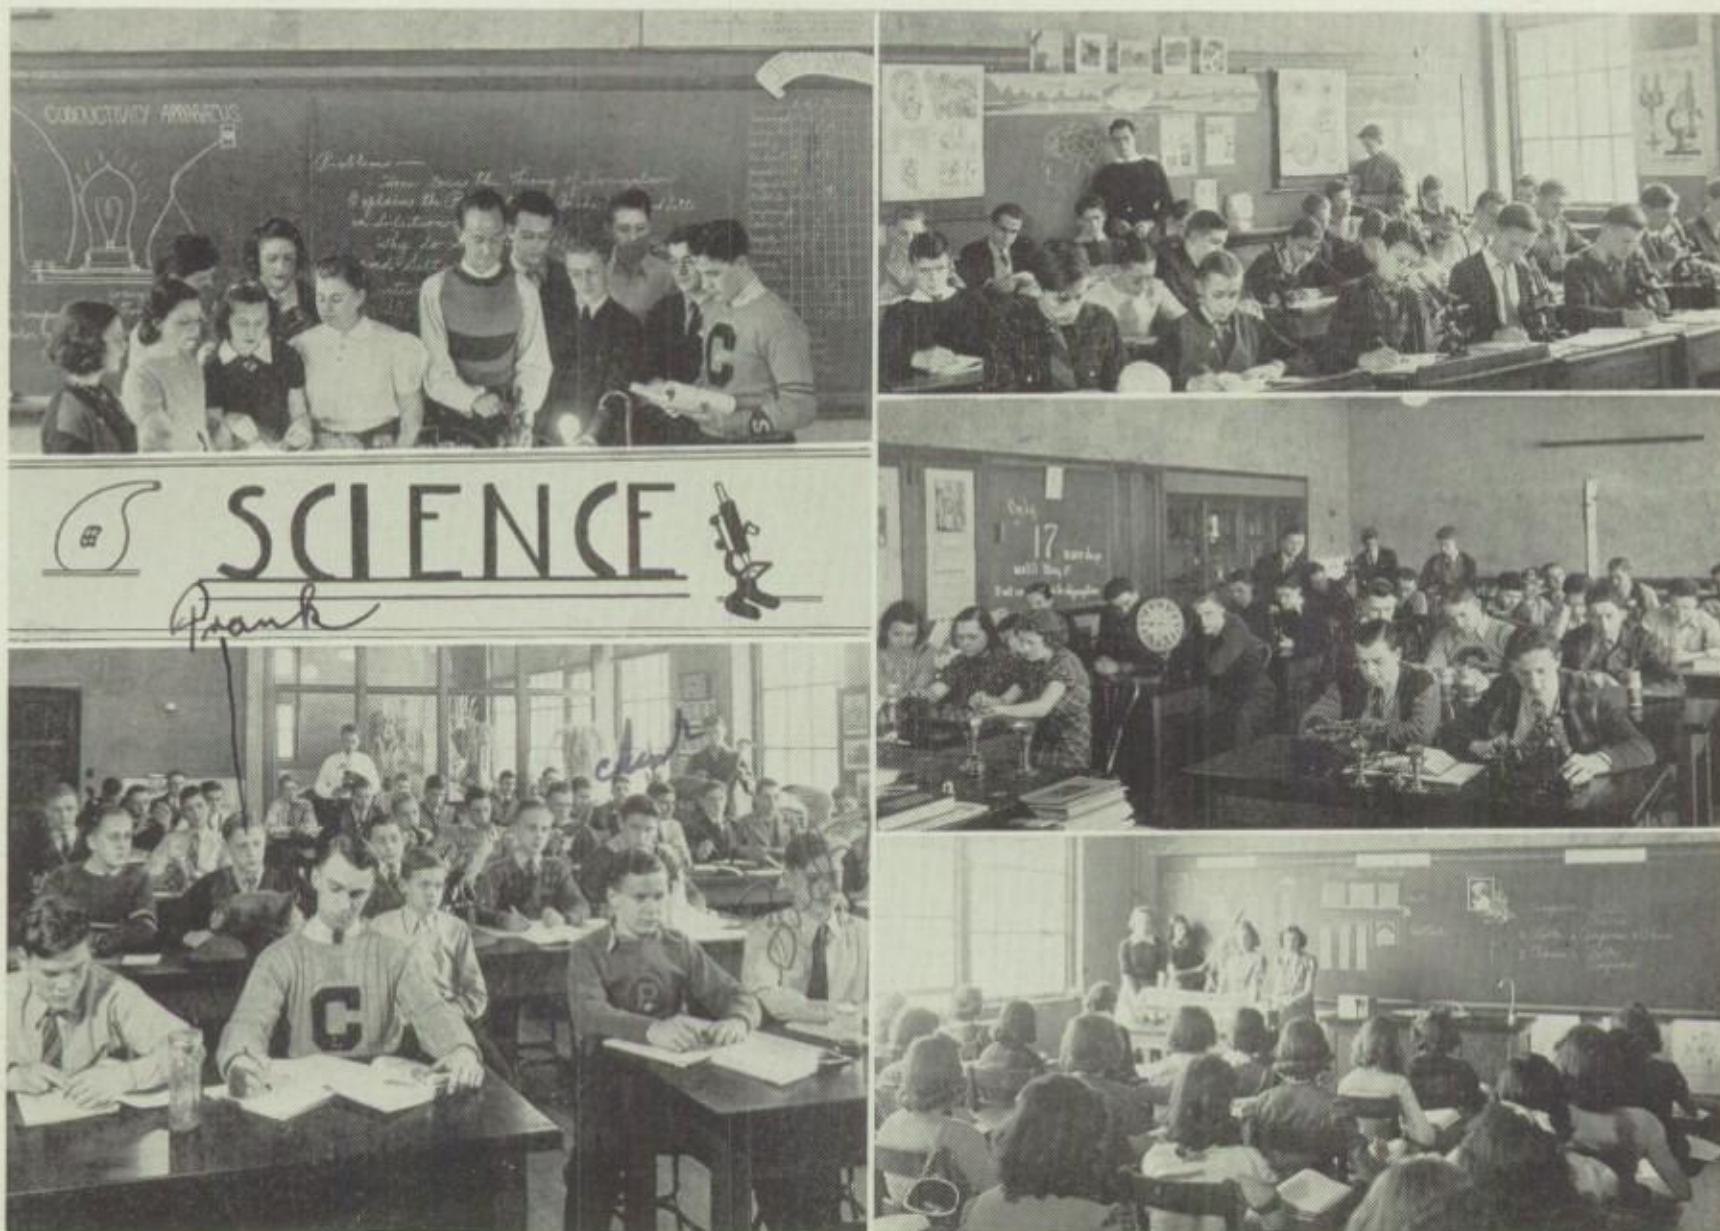

TOP ROW—Latin—Second year Latin students give a Roman household demonstration; French—French students study the life of Pius XI by George Goyan.

MIDDLE—Clarence Hulett and Frank Sullivan with National Latin trophy.

BOTTOM—Spanish—A Spanish group engrossed in the pursuit of Spanish history and culture; German—Members of the German club take time out to sing folk songs.

Science Department

TOP ROW—(1) The First Period Chemistry use conductivity apparatus. (2) The Fifth Period Biology class make a thorough study of the human skeleton and nervous system.

MIDDLE—Junior and Senior Physics students send messages to detect sound vibrations.

BOTTOM—(1) Biology group studies Reptiles and Mammals. (2) Four students give a discussion in one of the General Science classes.

CHEMISTRY

IN CLASSROOM study, the mind of the chemistry student is scientifically directed and developed through work in the laboratory under the supervision of Sister Agatha, O. S. F. and Sister Marie Therese, O. S. F.

Two prizes and four honorable mentions were won in the "Current Science" contest, and one honorable mention in the Duquesne University contest. In the former, Ignatius Kaminski, John Bottorff, Robert Kaiser, John Booth, Harold Knight, and Helen Oswald were winners; in the latter Francis Sieloff.

PHYSICS

Students in this class have, under the direction of Mr. V. C. Fischer, completed many practical projects in addition to their regular course. Recently they calculated the cost of running the different home electrical appliances in an effort to see the waste involving their needless use.

BIOLOGY

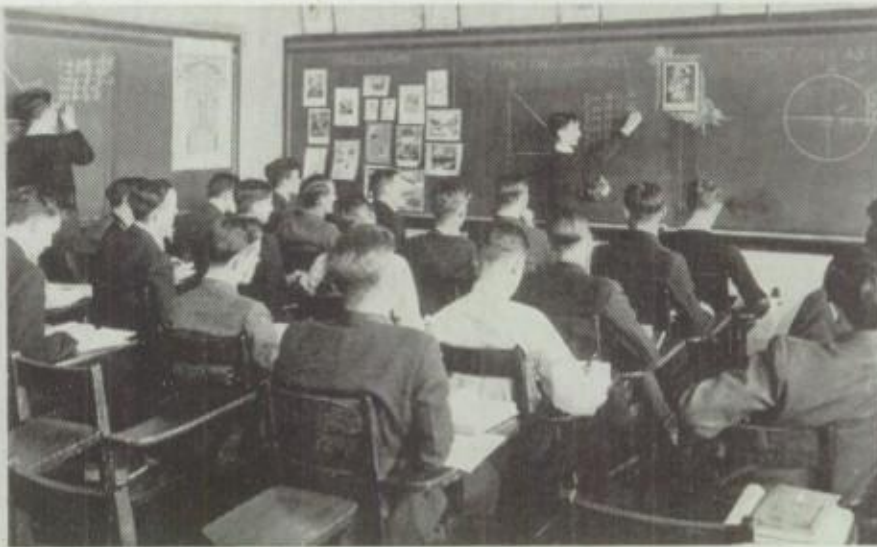

Biology is the study of the living things from the simple one-celled animals and plants to man. This subject is made interesting by charts and models which illustrate the topics of study.

Sister Agatha, O. S. F., Sister Benvenuta, O. S. F., and Sister Camillus, O. S. F., teach the biology classes.

Mathematics and Business Departments

Al-Geo-Trig Staff

Senior Trigonometry Class

MATHEMATICS DEPARTMENT

THE MATHEMATICS Department include ten classes in Algebra, five in General Mathematics, eight in Plane Geometry, three in Advanced Algebra and one in Trigonometry.

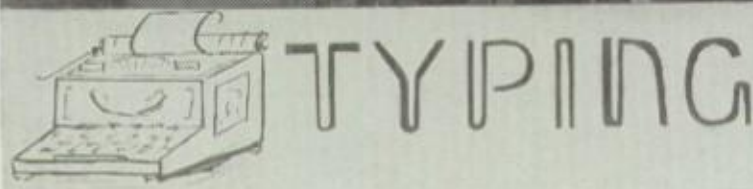

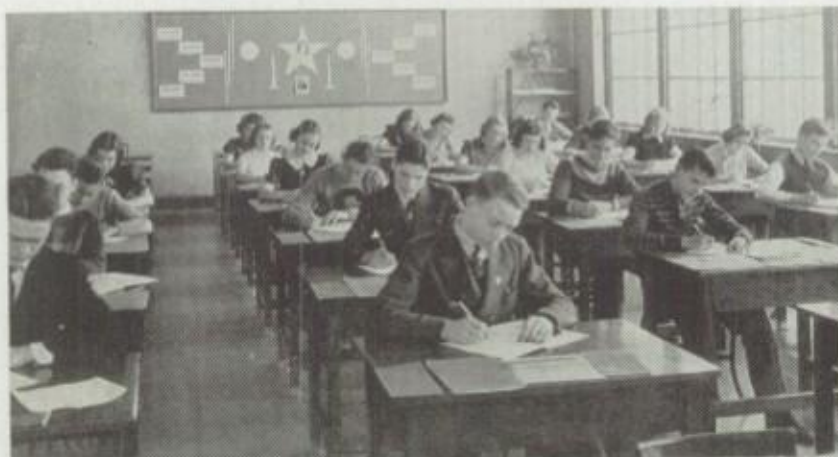

The outstanding project of the year was the publication of the math paper, "The Al-Geo-Trig." Representatives from the various math classes made up the staff, which was headed by William Yates, '40. During the year, five issues of "The Al-Geo-Trig" were published with an average circulation of 600 copies.

These classes are taught by Sister M. Alberta, O. S. F.; Sister M. Bede, O. S. F.; Sister M. Constantia, O. S. F.; Sister DeChantal, O. S. F.; Sister M. Rose, R. S. M.; and the Rev. Joseph D. Shenk.

BUSINESS DEPARTMENT

TYPING—During the course of the year several activities were undertaken by the various typing classes. Sister Mary Thomasine's, S. N. D., first year class gave a skit which portrayed business etiquette and concentration necessary for doing stenographic work. Under the direction of Sister Mary Louis, S. N. D., twenty-six second year typing students entered the State Esterbrook Gregg Shorthand Contest. All shorthand tests were examined by the Gregg Credential Department. Sister Mary Annelle, S. N. D., also teaches first year typing classes.

BOOKKEEPING—The aim of the bookkeeping classes is to turn out expert bookkeepers. During the course, the students learn what assets, liability, proprietorship and many other important terms mean to every good bookkeeper. Sister Mary Evenia, S. N. D., is supervisor.

Home Economics Department

- 1—The girls enjoy their own cooking.
- 2—Learning first aid.
- 3—Sewing for themselves.
- 4—Keeping house.

NURSING, sewing, baking, canning, and many other "ings" are done in Room 316 by the Home Economics classes under the supervision of Sister Mary Alice, O.S.U.

The course deals with activities centered around the home-life and home making, the finest profession open to women. The time allotted for the complete course is two years with five double period classes a week. The general aims of the course are to create ideals relating to personal habits of living, to teach students to carry home responsibilities efficiently, and to teach the group proper and intelligent selection of food and clothing.

In the first year classes, the students study foods, planning of meals, marketing, proper preparation and serving of foods. They also study clothing which includes the knowledge of fabrics, the use of patterns, the actual making of dresses and the care of clothing. Included in the course is child care, which acquaints the girls with the method and the technique proper to the training of small children.

During the second year, the girls learn how to preserve food, to plan diets, to budget and to do many advanced projects in design and clothing. They further their knowledge of the rudiments of planning and furnishing a home.

This year under the guidance of Mrs. Tanner, American Red Cross Nurse, the second year classes were taught how to administer first aid.

DRAFTING STUDENTS HARD AT WORK

THE DRAFTSMEN'S GUILD

THE DRAFTSMEN'S Guild, founded in 1936, has completed another successful year of existence under the supervision of the Reverend Gerald W. E. Dunne, A. M., Litt. D., and Mr. Bernard Carter.

At the first meeting of the guild in the early part of the scholastic year, the advisability of the admittance of the underclass drafting students into the guild was discussed.

The general project which absorbed most of the time and the attention of the class during the first semester was the drawing of the motor and chassis of a Willys Knight car obtained for the department through the courtesy of Mr. A. B. Muenzer.

During the second semester the group analyzed and studied the principles of surveying, and, after mastering the fundamentals, the students made first-hand application and use of these principles by transforming the field behind the school from a football field into a baseball diamond.

Secretary-----Louise Kranz
Treasurer-----Catherine Connolly

THE LIBRARY Club, which celebrates its sixth birthday this year, consists of twenty girls, both juniors and seniors, who assist in the library either during study periods or before and after school.

Holding monthly meetings, the girls have alternately social and business gatherings. At the former, entertainment and refreshments are provided while at the latter the members discuss ways and means of handling the various problems of circulation.

At a social tea held on April 19, Miss Margaret McCarthy of the Toledo Public Library spoke on library work as a vocation for girls.

According to the following order the girls preside alternately at the return desk, permit desk, and magazine rack throughout the day:

Third Period — Catherine Connolly, Rita Kaiser and Beatrice Polczynski.

Fourth Period — Grace Bruny and Virginia Spenthoff.

Fifth Period—Dorothy Connolly and Phyllis Richardson.

Sixth Period — Alvina Czeska and Rose Ann Bettinger.

Seventh Period—Norma Fehlen, Leona Knight and Lillian Tomes.

Eighth Period—Mary Burnett and Lucille Darrah.

Before and After School — Evelyn Drouillard, Annette Monroe, Louise Kranz, Jeanne Eaton, Ruth Kleeberger and Josephine Horne.

Miss Virginia Calmes, '37, is assistant librarian to Sister Mary Anthony, O. S. U., who is head librarian.

Girls' Art Department

THE girls' art department,, under the direction of Sister Mary Hilda, S N. D., offers a very thorough and interesting four year course.

Color theory, composition, free-hand sketching in water colors, and lettering, constitute the work of the first year art students.

In the second year, a course of designing, together with pen and ink and poster work, is offered.

Designing, interior decorating, costume designing, free hand drawing in pastel and water color, methods of applying theatrical make-up, are phases of work offered to third and fourth year students. In the latter part of their senior year, the girls devote their time to the pictorial work of the Centripetal.

During the past year, junior and senior girls did noteworthy studies in pastel work, favorite subjects being still life, scenery and religious topics. Rita Ann O'Shea presented two remarkable studies, a Madonna and St. Agnes with the young Virgin; while Alice Eisel did two lovely pieces of work, St. John the Evangelist, and the Sacred Heart. Jeanne Conrad and Helen Willinger chose as their subject, St. Anthony and the Child Jesus; Mary Ann Shea copied the famous "Child Jesus in the Temple," and Agnes Slavin made a beautiful sketch of the Blessed Virgin as a child.

All four classes participate in the activities of the St. Hilda Guild, a society which has for its purpose the general upkeep of the Altar and its accessories.

Boys' Art Department

THE present art curriculum for boys offers courses in furniture design and construction, architecture, sculpture, and oil painting. The work of the first year students consists mainly in the developing of an eye for form and the application of this form in the designing of furniture. In conjunction with this, construction, upholstering, and all types of wood finishing are taught.

Building and residence design is next stressed. This phase of the course includes the complete drawing of a two-story residence and its exterior design. A floor plan and the minute details of interior decoration supplement the residence architecture.

Students in the advanced courses study proper color and blending in their oil painting work.

Statue casting and modeling is one of the most popular of all art courses. The subject matter of these statues varies, since the individual student is allowed to express his own originality. That each student becomes skilled in reproducing design in complete detail in plaster is evident from the exceptional models executed by various members of the class. Lawrence Mauder formed a bust of Abraham Lincoln, while Paul Smith modeled a tiger. Thomas Gallagher made original character sketches. As a climax to an unusually successful course, Robert Stuetzer and James Perkins completed a scale model of a memorial building.

The class is under the supervision of Mr. L. E. Thuel, who studied art at the University of Bonn, Essen and Dusseldorf.

MIDDLE—Juniors work on a model of the Crucifixion in a Sculpture class.

BOTTOM—Advanced students do designing in furniture and upholstering.

"You must acquire a nose for news. Learn to recognize news stories, especially unusual ones, but remember that truth and accuracy are the watchwords of a good reporter."

This was the final advice THE CENTRIC adviser gave to the journalism classes before they began the editing of the nineteenth volume of THE CENTRIC. With these words in mind, the students of journalism gathered news for the first Centric which rolled off the press on October 7, 1938.

THE CENTRIC is a member of the Quill and Scroll, the Catholic Press Association, and the National Scholastic Press Association. The issues published during the first semester were submitted to the National Scholastic Press Association's critical survey to receive national rating. In this survey, THE CENTRIC was awarded the FIRST HONOR rating.

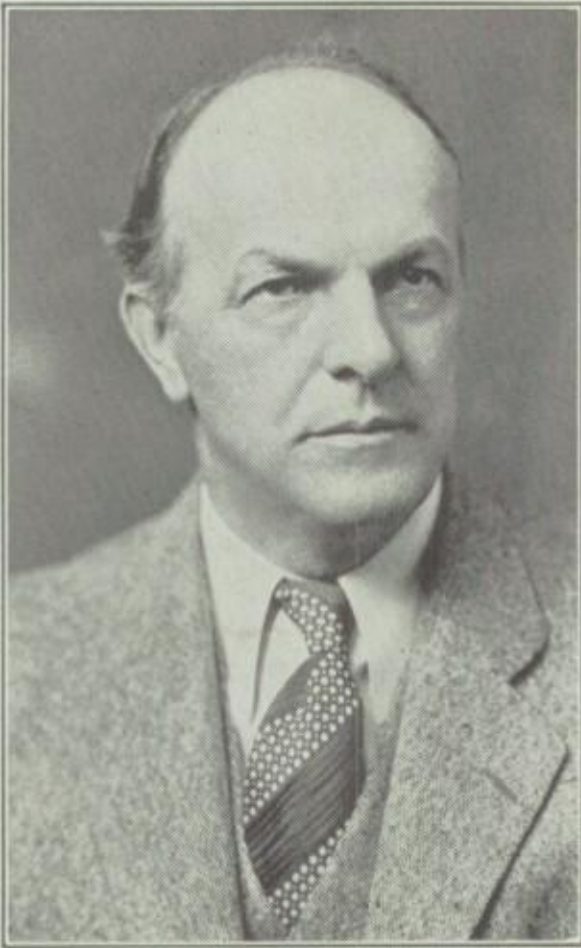

The aim of THE CENTRIC is three-fold; to keep the students informed about school activity; to foster Catholic ideals by maintaining a high standard of editorial content; and lastly, to keep the Alumni in touch with their Alma Mater.

Sister John Berchmans, O. S. U., is teacher of journalism and CENTRIC adviser.

Music Director

Music Department

THE MUSIC Department, consisting of the Band, the Orchestra, and the Glee Club, is under the personal supervision of Mr. Joseph Sainton, who has trained two hundred and thirty-four students this year in the various fields of music. He has a full time schedule at Central and has been associated with the school eight and one-half years. In addition to his teaching, Mr. Sainton is the director of the Toledo Philharmonic Orchestra, which is composed of forty professional musicians.

The Orchestra

THE ORCHESTRA is composed of thirty members and has proved itself a worthy organization by playing at numerous student assemblies. By giving several musical selections, the Orchestra added its part to the success of the senior play, "Growing Pains." Another important work accomplished by the Orchestra was its co-presentation, with the Glee Club, of the musical comedy, "The Red Mill."

The Orchestra also took part in the Music Festival, playing a series of three numbers: "Selection" from "Lohengrin" by Wagner; "Overture Raymond" by Ambroise Thomas; and "Two Hungarian Dances" by Brahms. The members of Central's Orchestra, together with those of Notre Dame and St. Ursula Academies' orchestras, were featured on this program and played "Overture Zampa" by Herold.

FIRST ROW—Stanley Krolezyk, Gerald Popelik, Ignatius Kaminski, Leland Naugle, Clarence Hulett, Kathleen Osborn, Ruth Johnson, Donald Doe, Eugene Kizer, Michael Burcin.

SECOND ROW—Victor Nawrocki, Richard Reifert, Donald Wilhelm, John Booth, Mary Baker, Rose Marie Tremp, William Tremp, Raymond Kraemer, John McAvoy, Anthony Ladota, Walter Brown, Irene Krolezyk.

STANDING—Raymond Viola, Eileen Callaghan, Anna Mae Baeder, Ruth Cothrel, Mr. Joseph Sainton, director, Keith Tremmel.

Drum Majors

JOSEPH SHEPERD

THE BAND was fortunate in having at its head this year two strutting drum majors, Joseph Sheperd, '41, and his assistant, Gerald Plank, '41.

By their efforts, the Band added a touch of gaiety and color to many football and basketball games as they marched down the field to the beat of the drums.

The Band

AMID THE blast of the trombones, the boom of the drums, the bellow of the basses, the sixty-four student musicians of the Band burst forth with gala tunes at the first football rally. At all football and basketball assemblies and Chronicle meetings the Band furnished the students at Central with plenty of peppy music.

Since its beginning in 1929, the Band has been expanding in size and improving in accomplishment. This year it took part in the Annual May Festival and played the following selections: "Selection H. M. S. Pinafore" by Sullivan; "Excerpts" from Faust by Gounod, and "Airs" from Bohemian Girl by Balfe. Besides this public appearance the Band, on request, played two nights during the Elementary Schools' Annual Musical Festival held May 10, 11, 12 and 13.

GERALD PLANK

THE GLEE CLUB

THE GLEE Club, a regular curricular activity of the school, is under the direction of Mr. Joseph Sainton with Sister Mary Camillus, O. S. F., as moderator.

The first public appearance of the Glee Club was at the assembly, December 21, when the eighty-seven members sang Christmas carols.

The first Requiem High Mass in the history of the school was sung by the Glee Club for the repose of the soul of our late Pontiff, Pius XI.

Among its other achievements, the Glee Club gave a splendid interpretation of Victor Herbert's musical comedy, "The Red Mill," April 21, 22, 23. Members not participating in the operetta made decorations for the stage settings.

At the annual Music Festival, May 13, sponsored by the Musical Department of the Parochial Schools, the Glee Club sang: "The Kyrie" from the Mass by Cesar Franck; "The Sextet" from "Lucia de Lammermoor" by Donizetti; and "The Hallelujah Chorus" from "Messiah" by Handel.

Glee Clubs of Notre Dame and St. Ursula's Academies joined with Central's Glee Club in singing "Come Where My Love Lies Dreaming" by Stephen Foster and "Hail America" by George Drumm.

Assisting in the program was the newly formed freshman and sophomore unit of the Glee Club.

Dramatic Club

THE DRAMATIC Club of Central was founded for the purpose of furnishing acting talent necessary for the Senior Class Play and the Musical Comedy, the two major dramatic productions presented each year. Mr. Joseph Sainton is in charge of the music for both productions, while Ida Talty Adams is dramatic coach.

During the current year, Robert Vickers, as Student General Chairman, was in charge of the executive work in connection with the plays, and was responsible, also, for the supervision of the work of the Production, Ticket, and Publicity Staffs.

The Production Staff looked after all stage properties, costumes, shifting of scenes, stage carpentering, and all other matters relating to the production. The members of the staff were Louise Kranz, Jean Bigelow, Annette Monroe, William McDermott, Napoleon Sliby, Thomas Kanary and Robert Lauer.

Robert Flahie, Doris Cumiskey, and Alice Bick comprised the Ticket Staff which handled all phases of the distribution of, and check on tickets.

The Publicity Staff, which managed the newspaper announcements and the painting of posters, was handled by Alice Eisel, Mary Ann Shea and Francis Sullivan as Chairman.

Sister Mary Callista, O. S. U., is the faculty moderator of the Dramatic Club.

"GROWING PAINS"

THE SENIOR Class Play was "Growing Pains," by Aurania Rouverol. It gave both a new and an old slant at the unsophisticated youth. In the play, George and Terry McIntyre were the problem children whose father, a college professor, was very much in favor of laying down the law while the mother, Mrs. McIntyre, believed that youth should have its fling.

At a party given by George and Jerry, the entire cast danced the "Lambeth Walk." Complications ensued at the party and George was taken to jail for striking an officer of the law. Things were straightened out and George centered his attention upon a new girl who had moved into the neighborhood.

"THE RED MILL"

THE MUSICAL Comedy presented April 21, 22, 23, was "The Red Mill" by Victor Herbert. The story centered around "Con" Kidder and "Kid" Conner, two Americans traveling through Europe. Unable to pay their bills, "Con" was forced to work as an interpreter and "Kid" as a waiter. They met the Burgomaster who was trying to force his daughter, Gretchen, to marry the Governor of Zeeland, whom she disliked. "Con" and "Kid" saved her and all ended happily.

Kathleen Oberhausen, Jane Rees, Catherine Fournier, Elizabeth Harder, Patrick Hagerty, Robert Golden, Harry Sheroian, and James Norton handled their individual roles so well that critics judged the performance to be one of the best plays that Central has ever produced.

The Student Council

The 1938-'39 Student Council Which Includes Representatives From Each Class, Hall Patrol, Traffic Officers and All Class Officers.

TIME: 8:00 A. M., May 23, 1939

PLACE: Little Auditorium, Central Catholic High School

PRESIDENT of the Student Council: "The meeting will come to order. . . . Will the secretary please give a brief summary of the events sponsored by the Student Council this year?"

Secretary: "Mr. President and Council members, during the last week of September, 1938, the student body of Central selected one hundred eighteen boys and girls to represent them on the Council. The representatives held their first meeting October 1, under the supervision of Sister Mary Eventia, S. N. D., and Mr. Marvin Sauppe, faculty advisers. At this meeting, Carl Spencer was chosen president; Irene Fleck, vice-president; Grace Bruny, secretary; and Harold Mouch, treasurer.

"On Friday, November 4, the Junior Class sponsored traditional Color Day. Tag week was observed the week of November 21, and was concluded November 23 by an after school dance that began a four day Thanksgiving vacation. At the assembly November 28, students were urged to make a novena in preparation for the feast of the Immaculate Conception. On December 21, the Student Council, with the aid of the orchestra and Glee Club, gave the Christmas assembly.

"Senior and Junior boys ushered at the Senior Class Play, February 3, 4, 5, and at the three performances of the Musical Comedy, "The Red Mill," April 21, 22, 23; at two Parent-Teachers' meetings, November 13 and March 26; the Music Festival May 10, 11, 12, and 13; the May Festival on May 29, at Swayne Field, and arrangements have been made to have Junior boys usher at Graduation, June 9.

The Student Council

"Council members directed the students of their respective conference rooms in the three "C" campaigns, the Catholic Chronicle Subscription Drive, February 5 to 20; the Community Chest Campaign, April 3 to 21, and the Clean Up Campaign, March 13 to 18.

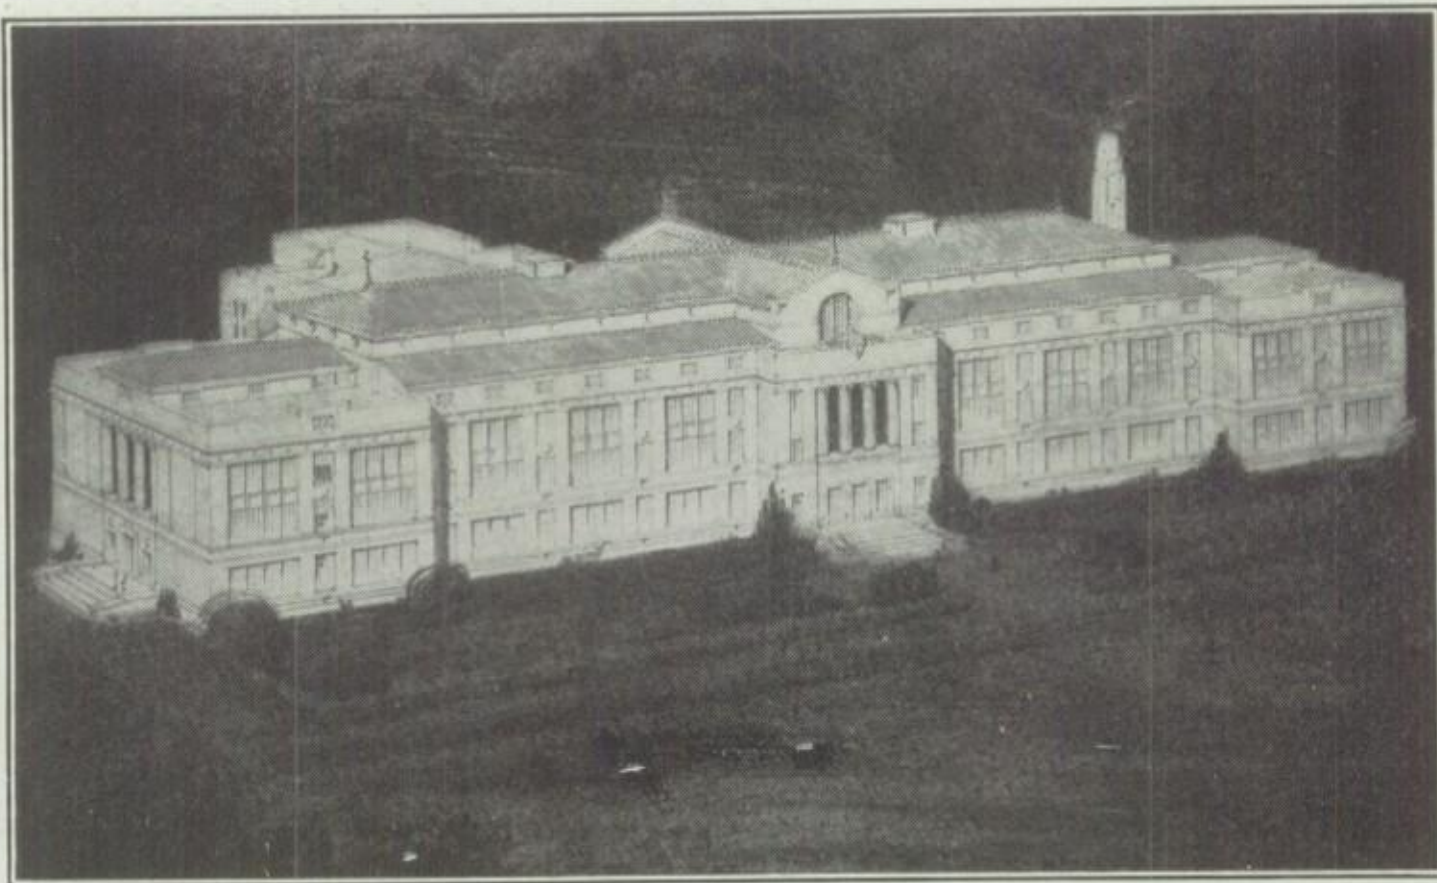

"The Junior council members selected candidates to represent Central at the Buckeye Boys' Conference, at Columbus, Ohio. Student Council members also sold tickets for the annual school outing, to Cedar Point, June 13th.

"A committee was appointed to draft a new constitution for the Student Council with provision for a student court."

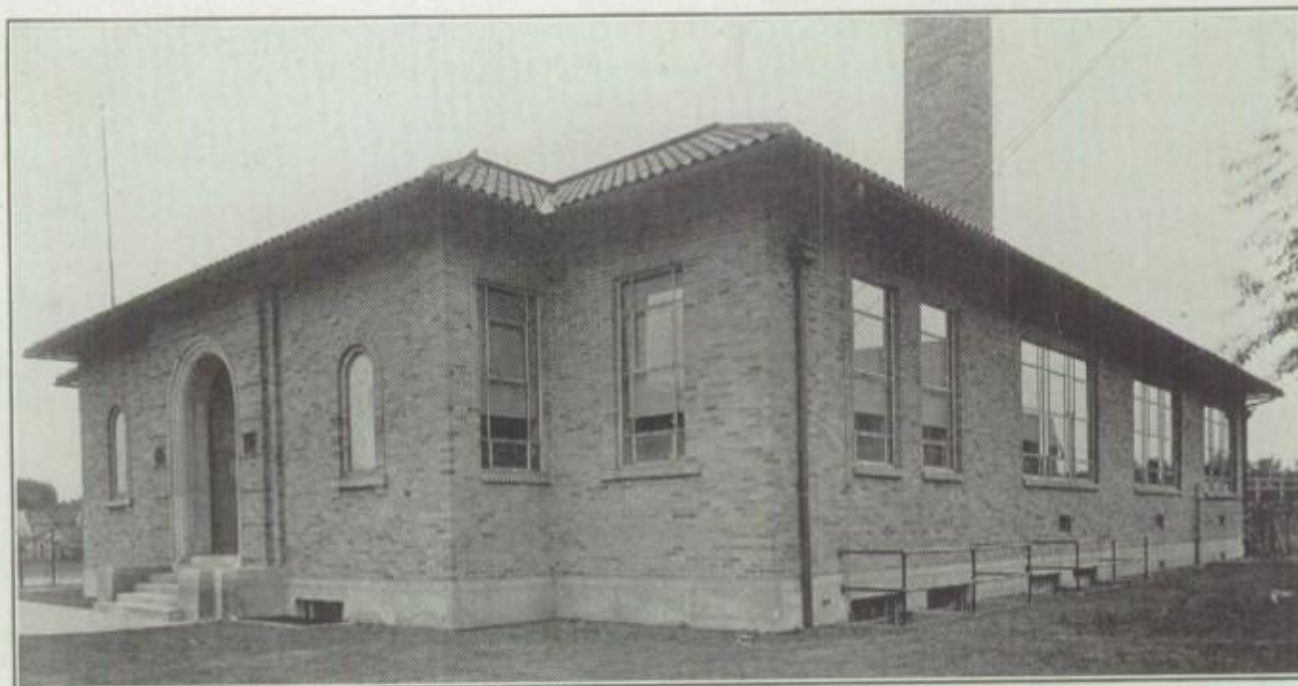

President of the Student Council: "You have heard a resume of the minutes of the meetings of the past year. Are there any corrections or amendments? If not, the minutes stand approved as read."

Alvin J. Sacksteder
Athletic Director

Mr. Sacksteder's Farewell

Having completed his fourteenth year of coaching at Central, Alvin J. Sacksteder announced his resignation as athletic director to assume the position of head coach at De Sales College.

Despite the fact that he worked with a small staff, Al turned out many championship teams and many exceptionally fine players.

His knowledge of sports, his keen ability for inculcating the ideal of manhood into the game, made him not only a great coach but a greater molders of men.

It is with regret that the faculty and students see him terminate his work at Central, but they realize that fourteen years of work and influence have made him part of Central's tradition. He goes to DeSales College but his influence remains.

Coach McCarthy's Welcome

James McCarthy, '29, assistant athletic coach during the current year has been stepped up to the position of athletic director to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of Al Sacksteder.

After being graduated from Central, he entered Dayton University, where he continued in his athletic prowess. Upon leaving that institution, he was signed up as a pitcher by the Cincinnati baseball club of the National League. However, an arm injury prevented his continuing in the professional field.

In 1937 Jim came to Central as head basketball coach and in 1938 his team placed second in the city race. The past season, as a climax to his two-year coaching career, his Scarlet and Gray team captured the City Title, as well as the runner-up position in the District Tournament.

Central's Fighting Gridders

MOUCH

HAROLD (MICKEY) MOUCH—Halfback, 132 lbs., Junior.

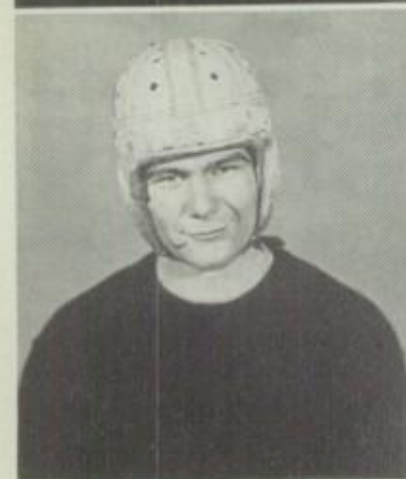

Mickey was the scrappiest halfback in the city. The other fellow always knew when Mouch hit him. His type of dynamite will be a great asset next season.

DONOFRIO

MICHAEL (MIKE) DONOFRIO—Halfback, 145 lbs., Senior.

Mike was handicapped by lack of weight, but always gave his best. His desire to win made him one of the outstanding men in the lineup.

SARAHMAN

THEODORE (SPARKY) SARAHMAN—Halfback, 145 lbs., Senior.

An accurate passer, and a shifty runner. His thrilling runs and hard tackling won him the nickname he bears. Sparky's speed will be hard to replace. A definite loss.

TSCHERNE

JOSEPH (JOE) TSCHERNE—Tackle, 145 lbs., Junior.

Tscherne was a small but mighty tackle. Another "up and coming" Junior who is going to make good. All good things come in small packages. See you next year, Joe.

HAROLD (HAL) CALMES—Quarterback, 147 lbs., Senior.

Hal displayed admirable ability in field generalship and always played one of the finest defensive games.

CARL (KARLOFF) SPENCER—Center, 155 lbs., Senior.

Carl captained the '38 squad. He was a smashing center whose line play will be missed next year. So long, Carl.

ENNIS (BUD) CHANDLER—Halfback, 150 lbs., Senior.

Bud's shifty, fast, elusive type of running enabled him to make large gains through even the tiniest holes in the enemy line.

CLARENCE (COOTY) COUTURE—Tackle, 173 lbs., Junior.

Hot dog! He's coming back next year. A brilliant player, whose hard playing proved his desire to win.

RICHARD (DICK) BURNETT—End, 169 lbs., Junior.

Dick, one of the finest pass-snatchers in the city, will be in there helping the Scarlet and Gray team next year. A valuable player.

BURNETT

RICHARD (STOOGIE) STRUGAREK—End, 165 lbs., Senior.

Dick was one of the finest pass-snatchers ever seen at Central. He was a Central contribution to the All-City list.

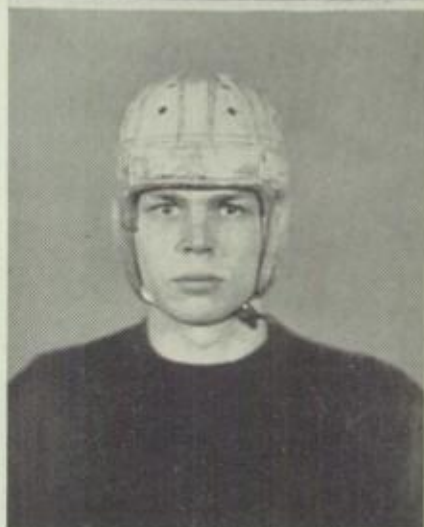

STUGAREK

FRANCIS (FRENCHIE) WERNING—Tackle, 180 lbs., Junior.

"Frenchie" was the hard charging tackle who was feared by opposing backs. An All-City tackle, who'll be a mainstay on the line next year.

WERNING

RUDOLPH (CHUNKY) RUDNICKI—Guard, 175 lbs., Junior.

Behind Chunky's amiable countenance there is an ability for hard, vicious playing that makes the opposing backs wary of coming through his position. He'll be here next year.

RUDNICKI

WILLIAM (MOOSE) SANFORD—Fullback, 145 lbs., Senior.

When this flashy back got started, all that could stop him was the wall at the end of the stadium. "Moose" was one of the team's best liked players.

SANFORD

WILLIAM (MAC) McDERMOTT—Tackle, 175 lbs., Senior.

There never was a harder hitting lineman on a Central team. Although handicapped by a leg injury most of the season, he turned in some superb games.

McDERMOTT

LADISLAUS (LADDY) ZACH—Guard, 185 lbs., Senior.

One of Central's contributions to the All-City eleven. There are 185 reasons why this scrappy player will be missed next year.

ROBERT (SCOTTY) SCOTT—Guard, 175 lbs., Junior.

A veteran lineman who will give everything he's got next year. There are no complaints against this man, who fought every minute for his team.

VIRGIL (VIRG) TANK—Guard, 180 lbs., Junior.

His ability lies in his strength. Not many plays of the opposing team got through this excellent player's position.

MILTON (JUNIE) McGUIRE—Quarterback, 130 lbs., Junior.

A player unequaled. His smart signal calling was surpassed only by his hard, fast, clever running.

CHARLES (CHUCK) REGER—Tackle, 180 lbs., Junior.

Chuck is a real member of the Fighting Irish squad. He always plays his best. We cannot say anything against this fine tackle.

BASKETBALL

1939 City Champs

UNDER the guidance of Coach James McCarthy, the Fighting Irish won their second City Championship in three years. In the 1937-38 season they wound up a strong second.

Central's Five was no mediocre team which won because of lack of opposition, but because of their great team play and co-operation—the Scarlet and Gray piled up the enviable record of twenty wins and six losses.

In the tournament, Central was placed in runner-up position, and thus added another trophy to the collection in the trophy case in the school lobby. Another trophy was presented to the team by the Central Alumni Association for winning the City Championship.

Co- Captain

RICHARD STRUGAREK

BASKETBALL TEAM

RICHARD STRUGAREK—Guard, 5 ft., 10 in.

Dick, a veteran guard, starred both on defense and offense. For his recognized ability he was elected to the All-City team, as well as being elected co-captain of his team.

PAUL ADAMS—Forward, 6 ft.

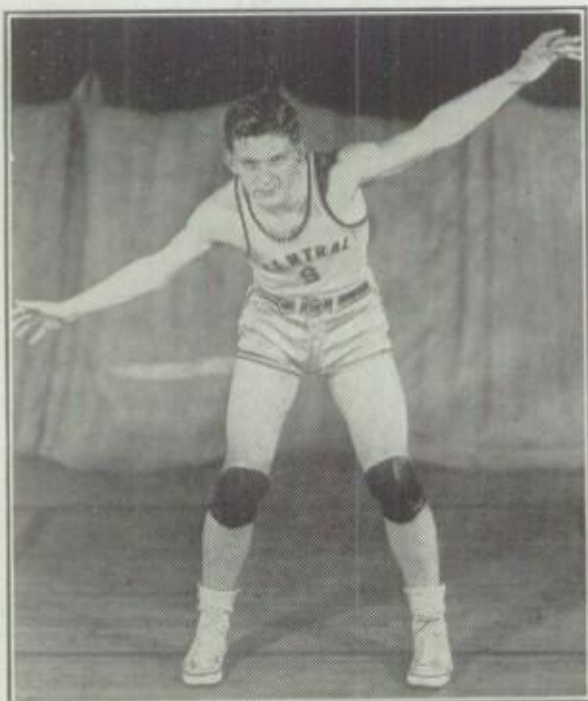

Paul, Central's contribution to the All-State team, was a clever ball handler and an accurate shot. He was elected co-captain by his teammates.

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER

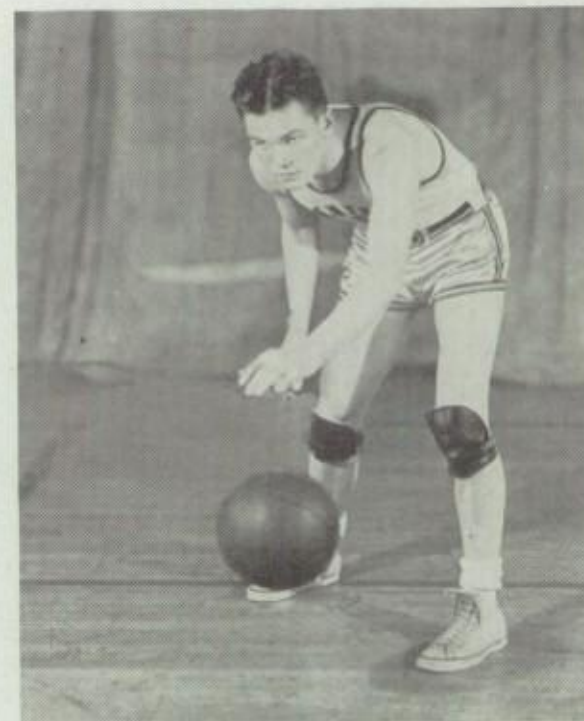

CHARLES DORE

CHARLES DORE—Forward, 5 ft., 10 in.

Chuck, a newcomer at Central this year, won his way into the hearts of the Scarlet and Gray followers through his flashy style of playing. His teammates honored him by electing him most valuable player.

ROBERT DRISCOLL—Forward, 5 ft., 10 in.

This flashy little forward was outstanding for his cool-headed floor play and his ability to sink long, difficult shots.

BASKETBALL PLAYERS

JOHN ROESNER—Center, 6 ft., 1 in.

Johnny was a valuable man under the basket. He was a fine defensive, aggressive player and a good shot. Better yet, John returns to the Central court for another year.

HAROLD MOUCH—Forward, 5 ft., 9 in.

This speedy little forward was one of the big reasons why Central captured the city championship. Whenever points were needed, Harold went out and got them. As he is only a Junior, bigger things are expected of him next year.

JOHN ANDERSON—Forward, 6 ft., 1 in.

Although this is his first year on the team Johnny, a Junior, proved his worth on the court. We wish you all the luck in the world, hoping you will lead your team to victory.

SAMUEL JACOBS—Guard, 5 ft., 10 in.

Sam, an excellent guard, blocked many shots under the basket. He will be back next year and we will be waiting to see him in action next season.

GEORGE BEELEY—Guard, 6 ft., 2 in.

Outstanding for his ball handling ability, this veteran player will be sorely missed next year.

LELAND NAUGLE—Guard, 5 ft., 11 in.

This aggressive player showed up exceedingly well on the back line of the Central zone defense. Lee, an accurate passer, and a fine team player will return next year.

THE BOWLING TEAMS

The Bowling teams, under the direction of Rev. Arthur T. Schmit, enjoyed one of the finest years in the history of bowling teams at Central. The American League team No. 1 completed another successful year by ending the season in first place in the city conference, and runner-up in the race for the championship of Lucas County. The team consisted of four seniors and a freshman, namely, Richard Strugarek, Richard Banning, Ralph Amrhein, Eugene Kusner and Clement Shurbarga.

The second American League team finished a few notches lower in the standing while the National League team completed the race in seventh place.

Golf, Tennis and Baseball

GOLF TEAM

After suffering a close defeat at the hands of the DeVilbiss mashie swingers, the Central golf team settled down to a successful season. Matches were held with DeVilbiss, Woodward, Scott, Waite, Macomber, DeSales, and Sylvania.

TENNIS TEAM

Libbey, Macomber, Waite, Scott, Woodward, and DeVilbiss constituted the competition which Central net men faced this season.

The Reverend J. D. Shenk, managed and coached the team.

BASEBALL CLUB

Strike one! Foul ball! Strike two, ball one, ball two, three, ball four. Take a walk!

It's baseball time for the Toledo High School Clubs. Scarlet and Gray nine have plenty of competition in the Peninsula, Libbey, Waite, Woodward, DeVilbiss, Scott, Macomber and Clay nines.

THE CHEERLEADERS

C-E-N-T-R-A-L, Central Rah ! ! ! Rah ! Rah ! Central—

The cheerleaders were the little yells behind the big yells of the student body. They were the ones who were up in the air and down on the ground to lead the students body in cheers, to encourage our teams to victory.

THE MANAGERS

The Managers are the force and power behind the Central teams. Their job is to care for the athletic equipment, to check in and check out supplies and to act as handy men around the field. They do the jobs that merit no applause from the stands. In spite of lack of outward show, the managers this year did a fine piece of work.

GIRLS' ATHLETIC LEAGUE

Ten years ago the Girls' Athletic League, now under the direction of Miss Mildred Mohr, was organized for the girls interested in athletic activities. The league has a three-fold aim, to develop leadership, to encourage social as well as athletic activities, and to promote sportsmanship among the girls.

At the present time there are approximately one hundred and twenty-two members in the organization.

For their social activity, the girls hold play-days at which time they play basketball, hit pin, newcomb, and volleyball. The gala meetings are concluded with a lunch and refreshments. This year these affairs numbered four with the last one being in May, at which time the fifteen girls who merited the highest number of points received G. A. L. monograms.
